Snapshots of happiness

What is happiness? The adventuresome authors of this inspiring travel diary journeyed the world for 56 days in search of an answer. In New York they asked a cab driver, in Tokyo a hairdresser, and in Bangkok a street vendor. People readily offered illuminating opinions and anecdotes on what happiness is to them. The journey is recorded in fascinating snapshots from San Francisco, Bali, southern India, Laos and more, locating happiness in day-to-day life.
